

CIRCUIT COURT, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

Marcotte v. CAVU eCommerce (AMER) LLC, Case No. 2025CH06466

If You Made a Booking on Airportparkingreservations.com and/or Airportparking.com Between July 1, 2024, and March 10, 2025, and Paid a Mandatory Service Charge in Connection with Such Booking, You May Be Entitled to a Payment From a Class Action Settlement.

A Court authorized this Notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- A settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit claiming that Defendant CAVU eCommerce (AMER) LLC (“Defendant”) failed to properly disclose a mandatory “Service Charge” for online bookings on airportparkingreservations.com and/or airportparking.com, in alleged violation of California’s Honest Pricing Law, Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(29)(A). Defendant denies that it violated any law but has agreed to the settlement to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with continuing the case.
- You are included if you are or were a California resident who made a booking on airportparkingreservations.com and/or airportparking.com between July 1, 2024, and March 10, 2025, and paid a mandatory “Service Charge” in connection with such booking(s). Persons included in the settlement will be eligible to receive a pro rata portion of the Settlement Fund, which will be based on the total amount of processing fees they paid.
- Read this Notice carefully. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or don’t act.

These rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—are explained in this Notice.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why was this Notice issued?

A Court authorized this Notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your options before the Court decides whether to give final approval to the settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the settlement, and your legal rights.

The Honorable Judge David B. Atkins, of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, is overseeing this case. The case is called Marcotte v. CAVU eCommerce (AMER) LLC, Case No. 2025CH06466. The person who sued is called the Plaintiff. The Defendant is CAVU eCommerce (AMER) LLC.

2. What is a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called Class Representatives (in this case, Shayla Marcotte) sue on behalf of a group or a “class” of people who have similar claims. In a class action, the Court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those who exclude themselves from the class.

3. What is this lawsuit about?

This lawsuit claims that Defendant failed to properly disclose a mandatory “Service Charge” for online bookings on airportparkingreservations.com and/or airportparking.com, in alleged violation of California’s Honest Pricing Law, Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(29)(A). The Defendant denies it violated any law. The Court has not determined who is right. Rather, the Parties have agreed to settle the lawsuit to avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with ongoing litigation.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided whether the Plaintiff or the Defendant should win this case. Instead, both sides agreed to a settlement. That way, they avoid the uncertainties and expenses associated with ongoing litigation, and Class Members will get compensation sooner rather than later, if at all, after the completion of a trial.

WHO’S INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am in the Settlement Class?

The Court decided that everyone who fits the following description is a member of the Settlement Class:

All California residents who made a reservation through airportparkingreservations.com or airportparking.com and paid a mandatory “Service Charge” at checkout from July 1, 2024, to March 10, 2025.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

6. What does the settlement provide?

Monetary Relief. A Settlement Fund has been created totaling $425,000.00. Settlement Class Member payments, the cost to administer the settlement, the cost to inform people about the settlement, attorneys’ fees (inclusive of litigation costs), and an award to the Class Representative, will come out of this fund (see Question 12).

Prospective Relief. Additionally, as part of the settlement, Defendant has represented that it will clearly and conspicuously disclose Service Charges to the consumer with the advertised price presented to a consumer in the first instance, unless and until California’s Honest Pricing Law, Cal. Civ. Code § 1770(a)(29)(A), is amended, repealed, or otherwise invalidated.

A detailed description of the settlement benefits can be found in the Settlement Agreement, a copy of which is accessible on the settlement website at CAVUServiceChargeSettlement.com.

7. How much will my payment be?

To receive a pro rata share of the settlement, which will be based on the total amount of processing fees you paid, you must submit a timely and complete Claim Form no later than January 15, 2026. You can file a claim on the settlement website, CAVUServiceChargeSettlement.com. Your payment will be by PayPal, Venmo, Zelle, or check, at your election. Claim Forms must be submitted online by 11:59 p.m. CT on January 15, 2026, or postmarked and mailed by January 15, 2026. You can contact Class Counsel at (646) 837-7150 to inquire as to the number of claims and/or requests for exclusion that have been received to date.

8. When will I get my payment?

The hearing to consider the fairness of the settlement is scheduled for December 1, 2025. If the Court approves the settlement, eligible Settlement Class Members whose claims were approved by the Settlement Administrator will receive their payment 28 days after January 15, 2026. The payment will be made in the form of a check, unless you elect to receive payment by PayPal, Zelle, or Venmo, and all checks will expire and become void 180 days after they are issued.

HOW TO GET BENEFITS

9. How do I get a payment?

If you are a Settlement Class Member and you want to get a payment, you must complete and submit a Claim Form by January 15, 2026. Claim Forms can be submitted on the settlement website, CAVUServiceChargeSettlement.com, or by printing a copy of a Claim Form from the settlement website and mailing it to the Settlement Administrator.

We also encourage you to submit your claim online. Not only is it easier and more secure, but it is completely free and takes only minutes!

REMAINING IN THE SETTLEMENT

10. What am I giving up if I stay in the class?

If the settlement becomes Final, you will give up your right to sue the Defendant and other Released Parties for the claims being resolved by this settlement. The specific claims you are giving up against the Defendant are described in the Settlement Agreement. You will be “releasing” the Defendant and certain of its affiliates, employees, and representatives as described in Section 1.30 of the Settlement Agreement. Unless you exclude yourself (see Question 13), you are “releasing” the claims, regardless of whether you claim your electronic payment or not. The Settlement Agreement is available through the “Court Documents” link on the website.

The Settlement Agreement describes the Released Claims with specific descriptions, so read it carefully. If you have any questions you can talk to the lawyers listed in Question 11 for free or you can, of course, talk to your own lawyer if you have questions about what this means.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

11. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

The Court has appointed Philip L. Fraietta of Bursor & Fisher, P.A. to be the attorney representing the Settlement Class. He is called “Class Counsel.” He believes, after conducting an extensive investigation, that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. You will not be charged for this lawyer. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer in this case, you may hire one at your expense.

12. How will the lawyers be paid?

The Defendant has agreed that Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees and costs may be paid out of the Settlement Fund in an amount to be determined by the Court. The fee petition will seek no more than 35% of the Settlement Fund, inclusive of reimbursement of costs and expenses; the Court may award less than this amount. Under the Settlement Agreement, any amount awarded to Class Counsel will be paid out of the Settlement Fund. Subject to approval by the Court, Defendant has agreed that the Class Representative may be paid a Service Award of $5,000 from the Settlement Fund for her services in helping to bring and resolve this case.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

13. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must submit a request for exclusion by 11:59 p.m. CT on November 7, 2025. Requests for exclusion may be submitted either on the settlement website (via the online form) or by mailing or otherwise delivering a letter (or request for exclusion) stating that you want to be excluded from the Marcotte v. CAVU eCommerce (AMER) LLC, Case No. 2025CH06466 settlement. Your letter or request for exclusion must also include your name, your address, a statement that you made a reservation through airportparkingreservations.com or airportparking.com and paid a mandatory “Service Charge” at checkout from July 1, 2024, to March 10, 2025, your signature, the name and number of this case, a statement that you wish to be excluded, the grounds for exclusion, and the identification of any other exclusion requests you have made in the last five years. If you choose to submit a request for exclusion by mail, you must mail or deliver your exclusion request, postmarked no later than November 7, 2025, to the following address:

CAVU Service Charge Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 3486

14. If I don't exclude myself, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue the Defendant for the claims being resolved by this settlement.

15. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive any payment from the Settlement Fund.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

16. How do I object to the settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can object to the settlement if you don't like any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must file with the Court a letter or brief stating that you object to the Settlement in Marcotte v. CAVU eCommerce (AMER) LLC, Case No. 2025CH06466 and identify all your reasons for your objections (including citations and supporting evidence) and attach any materials you rely on for your objections. Your letter or brief must also include your name, your address, the basis upon which you claim to be a Settlement Class Member, the name and contact information of any and all attorneys representing, advising, or in any way assisting you in connection with your objection, and your signature. If you, or an attorney assisting you with your objection, have ever objected to any class action settlement where you or the objecting attorney has asked for or received payment in exchange for dismissal of the objection (or any related appeal) without modification to the settlement, you must include a statement in your objection identifying each such case by full case caption. You must also mail or deliver a copy of your letter or brief to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel listed below.

Class Counsel will file with the Court and post on the settlement website its request for attorneys' fees by October 23, 2025.

If you want to appear and speak at the Final Approval Hearing to object to the settlement, with or without a lawyer (explained below in answer to Question 20), you must say so in your letter or brief. File the objection with the Court (or mail the objection to the Court) and mail a copy of the objection to Class Counsel and Defendants' Counsel, at the addresses below, postmarked no later than November 7, 2025.

Court	Class Counsel	Defendant's Counsel
The Honorable Judge David B. Atkins Richard J. Daley Center 50 W. Washington Street Chicago, IL 60602	Philip L. Fraietta Bursor & Fisher P.A. 1330 Avenue of the Americas, 32nd Floor New York, NY 10019	Adam R. Fox Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP 555 South Flower Street, Suite 3100 Los Angeles, CA 90071

17. What's the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the settlement?

Objecting simply means telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the class. Excluding yourself from the class is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing at 10:30 a.m. on December 1, 2025, by Zoom videoconference [instructions are available on the Settlement website at CAVUServiceChargeSettlement.com]. The purpose of the hearing will be: (i) for the Court to determine whether to approve the settlement as fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Class; (ii) to consider the Class Counsel's request for attorneys' fees and expenses; and (iii) to consider the request for a Service Award to the Class Representative. At that hearing, the Court will be available to hear any objections and arguments concerning the fairness of the settlement.

The hearing may be postponed to a different date or time without notice, so it is a good idea to check for updates by visiting the settlement website at CAVUServiceChargeSettlement.com or calling (888) 887-5409. If, however, you timely objected to the settlement and advised the Court that you intend to appear and speak at the Final Approval Hearing, you will receive notice of any change in the date of the Final Approval Hearing.

19. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. But you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection or comment, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you filed and mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay another lawyer to attend, but it's not required.

20. May I speak at the hearing?

Yes. You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must include in your letter or brief objecting to the settlement a statement saying that it is your "Notice of Intent to Appear in Marcotte v. CAVU eCommerce (AMER) LLC, Case No. 2025CH06466." It must include your name, address, telephone number, and signature, as well as the name and address of your lawyer, if one is appearing for you. Your objection and notice of intent to appear must be filed with the Court and postmarked no later than November 7, 2025, and be sent to the addresses listed in Question 16.
