FTC sends payments to people who lost money to unauthorized billing schemes

The FTC is sending 1,215,337 payments totaling more than $27.6 million to people who paid a group of companies selling personal care products, including Legion Media and KP Commerce. The companies used many names in their scheme, including Botanical Farms, Bliss Brands, Optimal MaxKeto, Supreme CBD, and Truly Keto.

According to the FTC, the defendants misled customers with ads for “free” or low fee personal care products that claimed to promote weight loss, clear skin, pain relief, and more. The defendants charged customers higher than advertised prices for products they bought, charged them for products they didn’t buy, or enrolled them in auto-renewing subscription plans without their consent.

If you got a check, please cash it within 90 days.
